

MODULE DESCRIPTION

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Designed by: Djamal Atabaev, PhD, associate professor.

Code and title of the program and specialization:

38.03.03 Human resources

Human Resources Management in International Business

Degree Program: Bachelor

Format of study: full-time

Learning Goal of the module:

Ability to develop a project basing on the evaluation of resources and constraints.

Basic definitions and procedures in the field of project management.

Intended Learning Outcomes

Knowledge level:

- Methods of working under constraints;
- Methods of management decision making;
- Methods of risk evaluation;
- Business procedures, that regulate the implementation of business plans and terms of signed agreements and contracts.

Competence level:

- Analyze the environment of a project and single out the decisive factors;
- Determine the optimal ways of achieving project goals and objectives.

Module plan:

Topic 1	The basics of project management
Topic 2	Project planning.
Topic 3	Project value management
Topic 4	Control and regulation of a project
Topic 5	Completion of a project
Topic 6	Production innovation projects
Topic 7	Project economic indicators

Current and final assessment:

The test is administered in the form of a group project

Reading:

1. Project management and practicum for bachelor students/ A. T. Zub. — M.: Uraite press, 2014. — 422 p.