Task. 8.

Two days ago I was thinking about visiting the Moscow. With my mother. We booked ticket on the plane online and started to pack our gear. After that we went to sleep but I couldn't fall asleep. It was awful as, in this case, I needed to have a rest only while having a fly.

Arriving to the capital, we took a metro in order to get to our hotel. Unfortunately, we happened to change the route twice as it was hard to find a special path. As a result, I found out that I forgot my hat and we were on the edge of getting lost in an immense city. The best idea was to follow the new discovered rule of going after a crowd. Actually, it worked.

To cut a long story short, my mother and me were searching for our hotel and also spent a huge sum of money buying clothes. Typical girls.

By the way, I should add that my tooth was hurting a lot as I had it deleted recently.

To recapitulate, in the evening it turned out that I recalled where I was and my mood improved. We agreed to go and glance at the Red Square, so these days were worth everything.
