Task 9

Once a group of students was forced to go camping. They were annoyed and unwilling to take part in any activity.

As soon as it got dark, they started to cherish up. Their leader set a fire and asked everyone to tell a joke or anecdote. The brave was Dave, and so he started: "There was a rabbit in the forest. He was able to breathe ~~thru~~ with his ears. This rabbit-wife was so annoying ~~to~~ that he had to cover his ears so badly that he ~~to~~ forgot about breathing. And that is how he died. So, ladies, don't be too mean!" The male part of the group was laughing, yet the females were furious.

When the boys were asleep, the ladies decided to prank them. One by one they painted the boys' faces with blueberries. In the morning, the males saw each other's blue faces and understood that it's no good to joke about women. The boys were not angry at them, only laughed and started hugging the girls as an apology.

Everybody came home in good spirits, with an array of emotions from the camping. That's how a misadventure turned adventure.
