Once there lived two brothers. They were twins so they looked identical. One of them was Mike and the other was Dike. They were known as not the smartest people. One day they got a letter. "It's from Dakota" said Mike and started reading the letter. "We are invited to Georgia to celebrate her birthday!" exclaimed Dike. And they started packing their things. They also bought a wonderful present. It was a ring with a name "Dakota" on it. They booked tickets for the over day.

The next day they flew to Georgia and came to their hotel. They again opened the letter and read the address. But there appeared a problem. They couldn't find the street on the map. "That must be a joke! Maybe she has mixed up something?" they thought. But then they realized they they had misunderstood the letter. Georgia had her birthday in Dacota. Brothers couldn't believe their eyes.

Fortunately, they got on the last plane to Dacota. But they missed the party. When they came everyone was leaving. Georgia looked at them with a surprise in her eyes as they presented the ring. "It's in ~~honor~~ honour of this beautiful state. Always remember its name" Mike said.
