Task 8.

Nowadays internet is one of the most useful sources all over the world. That's a big value for all people in using it. So do I and my friends. Teenagers all over the world started to use it to get united with anyone if it is needed.

On one hand as we see on the diagram there is a significant percent of teens who already became a social media user. That means only one thing, they're really love social live. ^{More than} 57% can chat every day.

On the other hand, diagram has 22% of teens who uses Facebook 10 times a day. That is absolutely insane. The cause of it could be lack of social permission in reality. The other problem is 25% of users under 10 years old. It is important for children to have their childhood.

Social networks ^{are} in trend to be used by everyone including teens. After all, ~~every~~ ^{each} person has to have own real life.
