She asked a teacher at the school about the olympiad, the woman explained her that there were 2 buildings of that school and she had to go to the second one. Masha was shocked. It was only 15 minutes left before the beginning. She looked at the map on her phone and saw, that the second building was far, so she decided to take a taxi. When she was waiting for a car, her English teacher called her to ask why she was not at the olympiad. At that moment Masha understood that she mixed the days and that day was not a Russian olympiad, but an English one. A taxi driver didn't know the road well, that's why they spent too much time on finding a road. She was a little bit late. That day everything went wrong and Masha was ~~really~~ upset.
