Task 3.

Just when demographers are ringing alarm bells about overpopulation, Amazon founder Jeff Bezos says we need to populate our solar system. Mister Bezos was asked for his thoughts on humanity living in outer space in a thousand years time. He replied: "I would love to see, you know, a trillion humans living in the solar system. If we had trillion humans, we would have at any given time 1000 Mozarts and 1000 Einsteins... space would be full of life and intelligence and energy." He added that he wants to help "build heavy infrastructure that will be used by the ^{space} entrepreneurs of future generations... so that ingenuity and imagination ~~to~~ can really be unleashed."

Mister Bezos' thoughts are echoed by fellow multi-billionaire Elon Musk, owner of X (formerly known as Twitter). In 2021, he said of the human race: "We don't want to be one of those single-planet species; we want to be a multi-planet species." Earlier this year, Mister Musk warned that: "population collapse due to low birth rates is a much bigger risk to civilization than global warming... mark these words." Mister Bezos conceives of people living in giant space stations. He said most inhabitants of these would visit Earth for vacations. He envisions our planet reaching to it's pristine environment, as factories would be built in space. He said they would exploit resources on the Moon or on asteroids instead of ~~just~~ using up Earth.

Task 4.

In a vibrant coast town, Zoe, a young chef with an extraordinary talent, thrived. Fascinated by exotic flavors, she had dedicated her life to creating innovative dishes, her skills far surpassed those of her traditionalist colleagues.

One brisk morning, Zoe embarked on a spontaneous quest for ^{the} culinary inspiration. Driven by her passion for unique ingredients, she explored the local markets and remote fishing villages. She wandered through bustling bazaars, her senses alit ~~with~~ with array of spices and fresh seafood. Her search brought her to hidden cove at dawn, just as fishermen brought in their early catch.

There, Zoe discovered a rare fish, its flavour was unlike anything she has ever tasted. This discovery ignited ^{the} burst of creativity: ocean's bounty was exhilarating, but there were unexpected findings that truly inspired her. Zoe's culinary adventures, blended traditional techniques with avant-garde tastes, ~~soon~~ soon became legendary, inspiring others to explore and embrace diverse flavours of the world.

1) Alaska. This snowy secluded state was the 49th to join the US. It was bought from the Russian Empire in the second half of 19th century for a couple of million dollars. People here hunt for fur and mine gold.

2) Connecticut. This state is often called "the first state" ~~for~~ ^{once} ~~for an interesting story~~. A little girl wrote a letter to the President, asking him to call her homeland "the first state", since it was the first to ratify ^{their} the Constitution.

3) Hawaii. It's the 50th state of the US. It is located far on west from the continent. It is a key base to the US Marine Forces. ~~There are famous~~ It is also a birthplace ^{of} for small guitars - "ukuleles". People here often greet themselves "Aloha".

4) Louisiana. Initially, Louisiana was a vast region - colony of the French Empire. However, US authorities, using the war with France and England, purchased this area for a fair price. Nonetheless, today the state looks far smaller than it used to be.

5) Michigan. This state is renowned not only in the US, but all around the world thanks to ~~the~~ famous Great Lakes that locate on the shores of the state, attracting tourists to these five outstanding landmarks.

Task 9.

A Misadventure Turned Adventure

Last Summer, me and my family went on another family trip to the natural reservations, located ^{on the} northern part of our state. Me and my siblings, as usual, lacked any enthusiasm, because these kinds of trips have already become a routine for us: we arrive at the place, photograph and return home. However, a sudden accident ruined our plans. Our tire has fallen flat! Thus, we were stuck in the middle of the nowhere with no map, ^{and with} no Internet connection, ~~with~~ a little hope.

Luckily, as we walked back, we came across this old shepherd, called Arthur. Our ~~meeting~~ ^{telling} ~~turned out to be a~~ ~~blatant~~ ~~disguise~~. Instead of ~~telling~~ our whereabouts, he invited us into his country with no infrastructure and electronics. Moreover, ~~to make matters worse~~, we had to assist him in his household chores.

Finally, we set off to our track away from the town. As we made it to our car, our joy was ~~slowly decreasing~~ ^{as we walked by the same road we followed earlier}. Then, the old man pulled ^{out} a piece of rubber, glued it to our flat tire, blew it ^{up} and said we to follow ^{the} Route 67 down South. He had the tools in his backpack all ^{along} the time!

As we returned home, we realised that this was ^{quite} one ~~of~~ an unforgettable adventure we keep laugh about to this day.
