Task 7.

I think there's a loads of reasons she dislikes living in a big city. For example, there're three main reasons: overpopulation, noise and air pollution.

A big city means crowds always and everywhere. On the streets, in the supermarkets, - crowds is an ordinary thing in big cities.

Because of overpopulation and big amount of vehicles, some places can be extremely loud.

Also, a lot of factories and cars can spread harmful gases and contribute to air pollution.

Task 8.

Nowadays many teenagers use social networks. Some teen can spend loads of time surfing the Internet.

According to a pie chart, my hypotheses means that social networks can cause addictions and interest loss because of the parents' unawareness to their kids.

Some parents now forget about developing their kids, give them phones and allow them to use gadgets as long as they want to. This is definitely a wrong way of socializing your child because social media contain lots of ~~useful~~ useless information. Some teens can lost their interest to some real life hobbies and be excited only in scrolling TikTok or Instagram.

How can we deal with that problem? You can talk to your child more and try to find them some other hobbies. However, do not give any pressure to your child, because aggression can only make the situation worse.

Task 9

1. museum
2. desk
3. school
4. test
5. homework
