Task 4.

As a citizen of a big city, there are a lot of different reasons to give a The most annoying problem is ~~pl~~ pollution. People using cars, public transport and other types of vehicles generate tons of toxic gas that is bad for breathing.

Another disadvantage of living in a giant city are the noises outside. It's really hard to listen to loud sounds outside that are created by animals, transport, people and other generators of sound.

75 word

Task 8.

In front of me is presented a ~~time~~ pie chart, representing teens social ~~Net working~~ Networking status.

After analysing the information, I can say that seventy three percent of teenagers use social network these days, but only thirty seven percent use network to chat with friends and family every day.

Another interesting fact is that only eight percent of americans use Twitter, when ~~the~~ almost three times more people use Face book more than ten times a day.

Talking about Facebook, did you know ~~that~~ that Twenty five percent of users are under the age of ten? It is a shocking news for me.

~~After all~~ And the final news is teens have over two hundred friends.

To sum up, right now there are a lot of teens using social net work from around the globe. And all of them use them for different purposes, such as texting each other in Facebook or Twit Twiter.
