v3. There has been a spike of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to steal — luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London, Washington, DC and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at knife point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2200 each. As well as literally stealing the coats off people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham City university, warned that the muggings were the start of a new "luxury crimetrend". He said ~~thats~~ the thefts were "worrying".

Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada Goose - branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for opportunists who might try to ~~steal~~ steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target Rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and ~~sell~~ then sell them online." A London transport spokesperson said: "Canada Goose coats are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network." She added that this "acquisitive crime" was "very concerning, intimidating and frightening".

~4. In a verdant, age-old forest, there resided Luna, a rabbit unlike any other. Mesmerized by the night sky, she spent evenings gazing at the stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, differing greatly from her peers, who preferred the forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on an unexpected journey. Guided by constellations, she ventured beyond known paths. She leapt over streams and navigated through dense underbrush, her heart pounding with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as dawn's first light crept over the horizon.

There, Luna beheld a sunrise of unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colors that stirred her soul. This moment of awe brought a profound realization: stars are mesmerizing, but her own world is equally as splendid. Luna's story, a blend of celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became an enduring legend, inspiring all to ^{appreciate} ~~achieve~~ the magic of both the distant dreams and the beauty close at hand.

№ 8 Wyoming: It is the least populated of all US states - less than a million people live there. Despite this, the state has its own university. The borders of the state form a ^{perfect} ~~perfect~~ rectangle. The Yellowstone national park is located there.

Utah: This state has the highest Mormon population of any state. Curiously, the biggest city - Salt Lake City - is hardly Mormon at all. The Grand Canyon is located in Utah.

Texas: Otherwise known as The Lone Star state. Most populous cities there include Dallas, Fort Worth and Austin. During the Space Race, ^{most} ~~many~~ American spacecraft were ~~known~~ controlled ^{and coordinated} from Houston, Texas.

New York: This state has two very distinctive sides: the city of New York (otherwise known as "the big apple" or NYC) and "the upstate". NYC is ~~the~~ home of the biggest public transportation system of any US state and ~~also~~ is one of the most densely populated areas of ~~the world~~ North America.

Washington: The northern part of what's known as the Pacific Northwest (or PNW). Home to many mountains and forests, Washington is also the place where many American airliners are built - the Everett Boeing factory is located just outside Seattle.

19. The day everything went wrong (but ended right) Andrew could feel that something was wrong as soon as he woke up. At first, he thought that this feeling was unfounded. However, he soon discovered that his slippers were ^{not} ~~where~~ where he put them yesterday when going to bed. In fact, he couldn't see them anywhere on the floor. Slightly annoyed, Andrew tried looking for them under his bed. They weren't there. "Well, that's weird," he thought. "I don't have a pet of any kind, and, although my roommate loves a good prank, he's on a business trip for this entire week." He looked at the clock. "Well, I still have some time before the start of my commute. I have to figure it out -

- such a mystery is just too interesting to be left unsolved. Before any of that though, I have to take ~~care~~^{care} of the breakfast.

So, Andrew walked to the kitchen to make some sunny-side-up eggs - his breakfast favourite. But as soon as he grabbed the Fridge's handle he was pushed aside by the door. Twelve ostrich eggs rolled out from the Fridge, knocking one of the chairs over. Before Andrew was able to comprehend what just happened, the eggs started hatching. But ~~instead~~^{instead} of birds, little green men have come out. These intruders then assembled into a triangular formation and started ~~singing~~ singing "Wake up" to the tune of "Für Elise". Frightened but bemused Andrew tried to run to his room. He felt the floor disappear and ^{there he} started falling down.
From under his feet

But then it was all finally over - Andrew ~~he~~ woke up, this time for good. His slippers weren't missing, there were no ostrich eggs in the Fridge and, most importantly, it was Saturday - no morning commute and no work.
