Task 1.

1. ~~The~~ ~~before~~ In my opinion, the poem is written to depict unrequited love that stems from poverty.
2. Instead of 'the cloes beaming with light', the poor poet can only offer his dreams.
3. 'Golden and silver' light might represent opulence, while 'the half-light' shows plausible happiness.
4. ~~It~~ Perhaps, his beloved one disregards ^{the aforementioned} ~~the~~ simple gift, therefore, the poet gets rejected.

Task 2.

1. c
2. b
3. ~~creativity~~ ≠ trust, very traditional
4. excitement, symbolic of danger

5. creativity, associated with death

6. diversity

7. C

Task 3

There has been a spate of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to steal - luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London, Washington D.C. and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of the coats at knife point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,200 each. As well as literally stealing the coats of people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham city university, warned that the muggings were the start of a new "luxury crime trend".

He said the thefts were "worrying".

Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for ^{opportunists} ~~opportunities~~ who might try to steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and then sell them online." A London transport ^{coats} ~~cases~~ spokesperson said: "Canada goose ~~cases~~ are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network." She added that this "acquisitive crime" was very concerning, intimidating frightening.

Task 4.

In a verdant, old-aged forest, there resided Luna, a rabbit unlike any other. Mesmerized by the night sky, she spent evenings ^{gazing} ~~gazing~~ at the stars, dreaming of cosmical mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, differing greatly from her peers, who preferred forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on an unexpected journey. Guided by constellations, she ventured beyond known paths. She leapt over streams and navigated through dense underbrush, her heart pounding with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as the dawn's first light crept over horizon.

There, Luna beheld ^{the} sunrise of unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colors that stirred her soul. That moment of awe brought profound realization: stars were mesmerizing, but her own world was equally splendid. Luna's story, blended of celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became an enduring legend, inspiring all to appreciate the magic of both distant dreams and beauty close at hand.

Task 5

Task 8

Oregon is a southern state which is notorious for the Trail of Tears. It was an atrocious event when the Cherokee, an indigenous tribe, was rid of home and forced to move to Oregon.

Pennsylvania is a state where the renowned Declaration of Independence was signed on the 4th of July, 1776. The author of the document was Thomas Jefferson, a Founding Father, who valiantly fought for America's liberty.

Virginia is not only famous for being a center of the ~~Civil War~~ battles ^{during the Civil War} but ~~also~~ it is ~~it~~ ^{is also} ~~also~~ regarded as a home for the first American president ^{war} George Washington.

New York is currently known to be a concrete jungle where skyscrapers abound. Once it was owned by the Dutch and called 'New Amsterdam' where financial affairs and matters were in full swing.

Washington is a state that was named after the first president of the USA George Washington. However, it is usually confused with Washington D.C. (District of Columbia) which is not a state.

Task 9.

KEEP UP WITH THE JONESES

~~AN AFFAIR TO REMEMBER~~

~~AN AFFAIR TO REMEMBER~~

I ~~definitely~~ recall the day when everything went wrong, though ended right. How can it be? Well, stick to the end of my story!

It all happened ~~My family and I moved to the countryside~~ when I was sixteen. Sixteen was such a tender age, I should say, so don't judge me! I ~~could~~^{would} easily ~~fall~~^{fall} for any girl and then ~~break~~^{break} her heart. However, one day, as Taylor Swift ~~is~~^{once} sang, "I was enchanted to meet you", I bumped into a ~~gorgeous~~ girl named Stella. ~~It~~^{She} was the love of my life at that moment.

We went to school ~~together~~^{the same}, and I ~~didn't~~^{genuinely} ~~close~~ hoped that I would kiss ~~of kissing~~ her at the upcoming prom party, even though she had a boyfriend James Joneses. He and his brother had a flawless reputation, so I decided to keep up with them. Frankly speaking, the whole situation resembled a pun: I was green with envy, trying to imitate Joneses' behaviour.

The red-letter day came, my prom party. "Today I'll kiss her! We've become friends, she won't resist the temptation of dancing with me." How wrong I was... She and James didn't come to the prom, and the last ^{phone} message I received from Stella was, "~~Leave me alone~~ ^{Stop} being a copycat!" The day was ~~seriously~~ a disaster, but actually, if I were her,

I would write that too!

Stella and James eventually didn't come to the prom.
The last phone message I received from her was, "I know about everything, dummy! Stop being a copycat! The day was a disaster; though, if I were her, I would write those words too!"
