Task 7.

Well, ~~the~~ the first ~~reas~~ reason I can think of is pollution. It's a fact that in ~~the~~ big cities the air is unclear and it's difficult to breathe fully. Moreover, the air quality can be a reason of many health problems. cause some serious health problems.

Another reason is that cities ~~are~~ of these cities are overcrowded. That's why it's challenging to find a comfortable accommodation and if you do, it'll be extremely expensive.

What stands out from the pie chart is that the majority of teenagers (73%) are registered on social media and slightly less than 40% (37%) text their mates daily. Furthermore, the average teen has 201 Facebook friends, which is a considerable number.

According to the described data, I can say that younger generation tends to have ~~all~~ their whole social life in their phones. I mean, they ^{even} make new friends there who may be long-distance ones. It means the two people have never met in real life. This tendency is ~~modern~~ to communicate like that is modern and older generations have never ^{ie} experienced it because they engaged socially offline.

This ~~alternate~~ change may be due to the increasing accessibility of ~~the~~ to the Internet and ~~to~~ gadgets. Twenty years ago Today we can have Internet almost in every spot of the world, even in the most remote areas. Undoubtedly, these ~~eterna~~ innovations have turned our lives upside down, including relationships with our friends. And we ~~don't~~ do not know what will happen in the future.
