№3) There has been a spate of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to steal - luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London,

Washington DC, and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at knife point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,200 each. As well as literally ~~stealing~~ stealing the coats off people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham City University, warned that the muggings were the start of a new "luxury crime trend". He said the thefts were "worrying".

Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for opportunists who might try to steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target Rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and then sell them on Lane." A London transport spokesperson said: "Canada goose coats are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network." She added that this "acquisitive crime" was "very concerning, intimidating and frightening".

№4) In a verdant, age-old forest, there resided Luna, a rabbit unlike any other. Mesmerized by the night sky, she would spend evenings gazing at the stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, ~~greatly different from~~ differing greatly from her peers, who preferred forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on an unexpected journey. Guided by constellations, she ventured beyond known paths. She leapt over streams and navigated through dense underbrushes, her heart pounding with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as the dawn's first light crept over the horizon.

There, Luna beheld sunrise of an unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colors that stirred her soul. This moment of awe brought a profound realization: stars are mesmerizing, but her own world is equally splendid. Luna's story, blending a blend of celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became an endured legend, inspiring all to appreciate the magic of both distant dreams and beauty close at hand.

№ 8) New Mexico is well-known for being the center of science around atom bombs due to Oppenheimer spending his time there to cure tuberculosis. This is also the state where the events of ^{popular} TV-series "Breaking Bad" take place.

New York is one of the most densely populated areas in the whole world because of people all around the globe coming there, looking for better life. New York is also known for its infestation with large rats.

Ohio is the most poorly perceived state not only in the US, but also all around the world. The reason for that is the "Ohio meme". Statistically Ohio has the lowest economic and social statistics across the USA.

Texas is thought to be the most conservative state in the US, as it has one of the highest percentages of citizens supporting the republican party. Another interesting fact is that Texas historically tries to become an independant state.

Washington is the state where Washington DC, the capital of the United States of America, is located. In the past, it was one of the first few colonies to come together to unite into a country.

~9) "The day everything went wrong (but ended right)"

One day I woke up feeling worse than ever (which I didn't really know was possible). I walked into my bathroom and let out a ~~5000~~ ⁵⁰⁰⁰ decible yell scream. I would've reported a break-in if it didn't require moving more than two muscles as I had no recollection of inviting a homeless person for a sleepover. But putting on my glasses and staring a little bit more intensely at the mirror let me calm my nerves down. The relief didn't last long though, as the realization creeped in: all this time I was mistakenly associating myself with Hermione because there was no way it wasn't Hagrid looking back at me that moment. Mirror reflection wasn't a void but it for sure was staring back at me. A void with the hairstyle of an electrocuted poodle.

I remembered it was a school day. My thoughts started rushing in my mind like hamsters in a running wheel. Panicking, I was trying to think of a way to make myself look at least a notch more presentable, but somehow, despite all the oil in my hair, the brain-cogs weren't turning. I was on a verge of tears and almost broke down (even though I'm not a dancer) when I unlocked my phone.

It was Sunday. I didn't need to go anywhere that day. Smiling, I looked back at my mirror. The void smiled back.
