Task 7.

I want to start with the idea, that living in the countryside is boring. I reckon, that it is one of the reasons that she could give because maybe most of her friends live in cities. Actually, in the countryside there are no conveniences for comfortable living like Internet and transport. Despite of fresh air and stunning views it can be dirty there. That's why she hate living in a countryside, I guess.

Task 8

To start with, I'd like to say that most of teenagers always feel tired and exhausted. There are some reasons for it. For example doing homework takes much time and usually teenagers waste their time playing videogames or texting their friends. I have a hypothesis that teenagers' brains are full of bad and depressive thoughts, so they try to sleep as long as they can. Actually, some teenagers do sports because they want to stay healthy and look good. A pie chart shows that teenagers spend their time using gadgets as long as they sleep. I reckon, that our generation grows on IT technologies, so teenagers waste their time surfing the Internet or chatting with friends. I wish teenagers did more important things such studying or reading books

to improve their skills.
