Task 3

There has been a spate of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to steal - luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London, Washington DC and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at high point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. X Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,200 each as well as literally stealing the coats of people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham city University warned that the muggings were the state of a new "luxury crimethread". He said the thefts were worrying. Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for pickpockets, who may try to steal them." He added that: "Thieves just to target Rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and then sell them online." A London transport spokesperson said:

"Canada goose coats are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network." She added that this "acquisitive crime" was "very concerning, intimidating and frauding".

In a verdant, age-old forest, resided Luna, rabbit unlike any other. Mesmerized by night sky, she spent evenings gazing at stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, differ~~ence~~ing great from her peers, who preferred forest's tranquil life.

She leapt over streams and navigated through dense underbrush, her heart pounded with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as dawn's first light crept over horizon.

There, Luna beheld sunrise of unimaginable beauty, kaleidoscope of colours that stir her soul. This moment of awe brought a profound realization: stars were mesmerizing, but her own world was equally splendid. Luna's story, blended of celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became an endure legend, inspired ~~the~~ everybody to appreciate the magic of both distant dreams and beauty close at hand.

Task 9

Tomorrow is expected to be the best and utmost important day in my life, because in ten hours it will turn into matrimonial one. It took us three years to gather both families at one table. There left no time to wait and we decided to organize it... the day before our wedding! My parents, really busy people, considered this meeting rather a chance to see their sweet Johnny (my brother) than get acquainted with the family their daughter is soon going to be a part of. Johnny called me a minute before our parents' arrival and informed that he had just woke up after a party ~~wasn't feeling well~~ and thus could be late. When my parents came, I rushed to the door to hug them, but they ignored my intention and asked whether Johnny had come. After I told them why he would ~~be~~ come later, my mother started to panic and was about to cancel the meeting for Johnny to get some time to rest. Only David's (my fiancée's) parents stopped her by arriving next minute. David's mother, Mrs Green, appeared to be a nice woman ^{with a broad grin on her face}, who greeted me warmly and complimented my dress I gifted ~~her~~ ~~my~~ ~~her~~ daffodils in a pretty string both to mom and Mrs Green and we gathered at the table. Mrs Green was impressed by my cookery skills and even asked to share a recipe of one of the dishes, while my mom said that she would rather eat Johnny's sandwiches (the only dish he is able to make). Johnny turned up an hour's later in his pajamas, with no flowers or at least a smile on his face. The only one who was shining with happiness at that moment was my mom. She gave him a kiss in a forehead and assured that there was no need for him to come to this dull gathering. She introduced him as the pride of our family (with no job, ambitions and with lots of debts). They left without thanking for the meeting or saying good bye. When the door closed, everybody burst into laughing. Mrs Green promised to compensate the love I didn't get from mother, because she has always dreamt of a daughter like me.

Ohio appears to be one of the most dangerous states of the USA. There are many crime-ridden areas, juvenile delinquency is on a rise and the general percentage of committed crimes is pretty high.

Texas

Texas is suffering from ~~big~~ refugees from Mexico, who cross the border illegally. A couple of days ago its minister claimed that this is a local problem, which state will deal on its own, without the president's influence.

Washington

Washington is a north-west state, ^{which is} located on the border with Canada. Many people are mistakenly sure that Washington DC is ~~was~~ situated in this state, which is not a surprise - look at its name!

New York

This is undoubtedly the most renowned state of the USA. The ^{NY} city hosts two symbols of America - the 5th Avenue and the Statue of Liberty (however, the latter was a present from France).
