Task 9. The day everything went wrong but ended right.

Since the very morning the day proved to be happy.
And what a day - the day of my departure for ~~my~~ a long awaited ~~summer~~ holidays trip!

Hardly could I keep my excitement ~~to myself~~, as though I waited and wanted, until the evening came, and at last it was time to go.

But then the tragedy happened! We couldn't find my ticket! We looked for it everywhere, examined every bag, every suitcase - all in vain. We ~~we~~ unpacked all our luggage, and yet no ticket! It seemed to have disappeared!
We lost hope... and then ~~had~~ glanced at the clock... 8 a.m! The train ~~just left~~ had just left...

One couldn't imagine the pity of mine, let me in my grief I ~~st~~ put out of my jacket, which I ~~was~~ wearing all this time, and suddenly had been the ticket fell out of it!

No use of telling you I got even grimmer!

Next day we went to the train station to return our tickets and buy new ones.

To our surprise, the girl at the ticket desk ~~had~~ told us that our ~~the~~ train the day before had been cancelled, so I hadn't missed it, and that ~~we~~ we could use our tickets again the following evening! Wasn't it nice, ~~was it?~~ indeed, was it?
