Task 7

Well, living in the countryside was a lot of disadvantages. First of all, there are not many sport and education facilities. You will not find ~~there~~ big schools, good gyms, various museums there. Secondly, there are not many people in the countryside.

One of the advantages of living in the city is that you meet different and new, ~~people~~ interesting people every day and you learn to communicate with them, but you ~~will~~ can't do the same in the countryside.

Task 8.

Well, the diagram shows us that there are many various activities for teenagers. Firstly, the most popular activity is sleeping. In my opinion, it is the most popular activity because teenagers are ~~not~~ very busy now, and sleeping is a chance to relax ~~for them~~ and to have a rest for them. The second popular answers are studying and eating. I think they are popular because young people find their education really important, so they spend a lot of time studying, solving their homework. Actually, eating may be popular because teenagers are very active, so they fastly get tired and hungry. However, sport activities are important for teens, but they are less popular, as it is shown on the diagram. Also some teens like to spend their time online, playing videogames or texting. I think it helps them to relax, but these answers are not very popular, so we see that modern teenagers mostly prefer some other activities.
