The Day Everything Went Wrong (But Ended Right)

Everyone in their life had at least one day when everything was against ~~you~~^{them}. Well, it's going to be ~~this~~ story. It was a day, as usual as every day, except for one ~~that~~^{late} thing: I was extremely (for the record, I am never late). The first lesson I had was History, where we always wrote some tests. The day went wrong from the very beginning, ~~that~~ when my alarm didn't work, so I overslept. Then I went to the bathroom. As my mouth was in toothpaste, I found out that there was no water. Well, I didn't care that much, so I came to the kitchen to make some toasts. And guess what - I completely burnt it! Being hungry, I finally ~~got~~^{got} to the bus station. I ~~had~~ had been waiting for 20 minutes before my bus arrived. When I was near the school, the time was 9:00, which meant, that I was late for 30 minutes. I was frightened to come in. Dimly lit school looked even scarier. But when a guard saw me he was quite surprised. The reason for that ~~reaction~~ was ~~that~~^{re} they were holidays! That is why my alarm didn't work. Anyways, I wasn't late for History.
