⑨ We were in the forest. The weather was great and we had already made the most difficult part of our journey, so now we were looking forward to finishing this challenge.

My mum was taking photos of some famous lake, when it started raining. We quickly put our heavy backpacks on the shoulders and followed one of the available ~~paths~~ ^{paths} ~~with people~~ ^{with people}. This part of the forest was crowded, so we ~~were not~~ weren't concerned about getting lost.

Of course, we got lost. Once we chose the wrong destination, then we turned left instead of turning right. As a result we found ourselves standing in front of that famous lake, where the rain caught us. It took about two hours to find a way out of the forest.

Eventually, we finished our journey and went to the hotel. Surprisingly, the administrator refused to give us a room, as we had a dirty look.

○ We left the hotel in annoyance and worry. It was getting dark and our house was in almost thousand kilometers from there.

'By the way, I've stolen the toilet paper from their WC', said Dad suddenly.

We ~~couldn't~~ ^{just} laughed like, at least we have something.
