Task 4.

In a vibrant coast town, Zoe, a young chef with ^{an} extraordinary talent, ~~thrived~~ ^{was thriving}. Fascinated by exotic flavors, she dedicated her life to creation of innovative dishes, her skills farly surpassed those of her traditionalist colleagues.

One brisk morning, Zoe embarked on a spontaneous quest for culinary inspirations. Driven by her passion for unique ingredients, she ~~explored~~ ^{has been exploring} local markets and remote fish villages. She ~~was wandering~~ ^{wandered} through bustling bazaars, her senses alighting with array of spikes and fresh seafoods. Her search brought her to a hidden cove at dawn, just as fishermen were bringing in their early catch.

There, Zoe discovered a rare fish, its flavor was unlike anything she ~~had~~^{has} ever tasted. This discovery ignited her burst of creativity: ocean's bounty may be exhilarating, but there is still unexpected finds that truly inspire her. Zoe's culinary adventures, blending traditional ~~and~~ techniques with avant-garde tastes, soon became legendary, inspiring others to explore and embrace diverse flavors of the world.

Task 8.

1. Florida In America, ^{some} people say that the most crazy people come from Florida. And it might be true. I mean, every time I look at the news some man from Florida is either fighting an alligator, or robbing a pre-school class.

2. Alabama. As far as I know, this is the only state that allows you to marry your cousin. Many people ^{on the Internet} disagree with this, some even make jokes about it.

3. Alaska. This state in the past, this state was a part of Russia. Then, Russia ~~gifted~~ ^{sadly} it. Unfortunately, the USA bought Alaska, so now it's not Russian anymore. Also, it is the coldest state in the USA.

4. Hawaii. Most Americans don't know that Hawaii is one of the states of the USA. It is probably because it is very small. ~~and~~. Also,

is the only state in the middle of the sea.

Task 3.

Hello, my name is Peter. Today I want to tell you a story. I hope this story will teach you to be more optimistic about your misadventures.

This happened last summer. I was returning home from another state ~~I need to travel long distances for my job~~. Everything was ^{completely} ~~perfectly~~ fine. The sun was shining, the birds were singing.

~~Suddenly~~ Suddenly, my car broke down. ^{happening} ~~Saying~~ that I was ~~panicking~~ ^{panicking} would be an understatement. My home was still so far away! I ~~tried~~ to fix my car, but it was no use.
I'm a banker, I don't know how to fix cars! Luckily, a truck was driving ~~past~~ ~~past me~~ near by. The driver must've felt bad for me and stopped.
He ~~asked~~ ^{asked} if I needed a ride and, well, I definitely needed
one. ~~The trucker's~~ ~~truck's~~ ~~driver's~~ name of the truck driver was Tom. He was very kind and told me many funny stories. At the end of our the trip we exchanged numbers. Ten years later, we are best friends. We often travel together. Our families are also very close, my son and Tom's daughter even got engaged!

This story goes to show that even the worst misadventure in misadventure might turn into the best adventure of your life.
