Look at the diagram. 73% of teens are on social networks and 25% of Facebook users are under the age of ten. It means that children form their personality with the help of social media. Influence of Internet on teens is enormous 29% of teenagers log on to Facebook over 10 times per day. They look through posts, listen to bloggers and take up their ideas. Nobody can prove that various people from internet should be listened to. However, teens are ready to trust someone with many subscribers.
