I was running to my office when one cheeky boy stumbled upon me. It made my blood boil.

Finally, I entered my office and went to my cabinet. I was opening the door, when it slammed and my fingers became blue. I was as white as a sheet and I kept my fingers on my mouth. I noticed the boss and asked him "What did you want to tell me?" You have to change your ~~job~~ work approaches and methods. Keep your fingers on the pulse!" I was taken aback by his last piece of advice, but then realised what it
