One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as 2,200 dollars each. As well as literally stealing the coats of people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham^a city University, warned that the muggings were the start of a new "luxury crime trend". He said the thefts were "worrying".

Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose brended jackets to be careful and aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant^a for opportunists who might try to steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target rolex watches witch which go for thousands ~~in~~ of pounds and then sell them online." Task 3

The Day Everything Went Wrong (But Ended Right)

A couple of years ago my mother and I went to London. We were so enthusiastic about being there that ~~it~~ it ended up backfiring on us.

We were gazing at the sights and because of that forgot the bag with all our documents and money on the bus. Obviously we continued to explore the city. Only after we tried paying for ice~~cream~~ did we realize we'd lost the bag.

This was devastating news to me as we had planned a trip to the Warner Brothers Harry Potter studio for the evening. I was looking forward to it, but now we wouldn't be able to make it because we'd have to search for our lost possession.

And search we did. My mother phoned the London bus emergency line and explained our situation. We were told an address ~~or~~ where we had to anxiously wait for hours.

Finally, a bus driver came in ^{with} our bag in hand. We sighed with relief. And on top of that when I glanced at the clock it turned out that we could still make it to the Harry Potter studio.

After a long and stress-filled day it was just what we needed to brighten up our ~~day~~ mood.
