Task 3. Just when demographers are ringing alarm bells about overpopulation, Amazon Founder Jeff Bezos says we need to populate our Solar System. Mr. Bezos was asked for his thoughts on humanity living in outer space in a thousand years time. He replied: "I would love to see, you know, a trillion humans living in the Solar System. If we had a trillion humans, we would have at any given time 1,000 Mozarts and 1,000 Einsteins... Space would be full of life and intelligence and energy." He added that he wants to help "build heavy infrastructure that will be just by the space entrepreneurs of future generations... So that their imagination can really be unleashed."

Mr. Bezos' thoughts are asked by fellow multi-billioner Elon Musk, owner of X (formerly known as Twitter). In 2021, he said of the human race: "we don't want to be one of those single-planet species; we want to be a multi-planet species". Earlier this year, Mr. Musk wondered that "population leaps due to low birth rates is a much bigger risk to civilization than global warming... Mark these words." Mr. Bezos ~~can~~ conceives of people living in giant space stations. He said most inhabitants of these would visit Earth for vacations. He envisions our planet returning to its pristine environment as factories would be built in space. He said they

An island tourist got rather bored with his group's chatter when he noticed an exotic fly and decided to follow it. A minute into the chase, he realized he was absolutely lost. He turned around to run back, but ~~was~~ saw a tall, wild-looking man. "This is not one of those I came with...", ~~the man~~ he thought. "Excuse me, how do I...?" — he didn't even finish when his new acquaintance started yelling a language unknown to the traveller, pointing to the left. "This is where the exit is!", the tourist realised, as he nodded and ran forward.

Hours after hours, he wandered through woods, then moors, then woods again. "This is one long way back! I must be going in loops," the man said to himself. Suddenly, he felt the ground under him shrink as his body flew up. It took him a second to realize he was ensnared in an animal trap.

"Help me!", he cried hopelessly, knowing the locals didn't even speak English. Then he felt a tap on his back: "Goodness, Mike! We've been looking all over for you, and you weren't even ten feet away from where you disappeared!"
