But guess what happened just after 10 mins? She ran out of gas. So we were in the middle of nowhere with no help. I thought that this day couldn't get any worse but at that exact moment my phone died. I was ready to sit there and start crying but Jessica got her coat out of the car, put it on the grass and invited me to join her.

So that's how I managed to end up lying around on the grass and looking at the stars with a person who told me: "You should always seize the day no matter how hard it gets" And that was right.
