Just when demographers are ringing alarm bells about overpopulation, Amazon founder Jeff Bezos says we need to populate our solar system. Mister Bezos was asked for his thoughts on humanity living in outer space in a thousand years time. He replied: "I would love to see, you know, a trillion humans living in the solar system. If we had a trillion humans, we would have at any given time 1000 Mozarts and 1000 Einsteins... Space would be full of life and intelligence and energy". He ended that he wants to help "build heavy infrastructures that will be used by space entrepreneurs of future generations... So that engineered imagination can rely by unleashed"

Mister Bezos' thoughts are echoed by fellow multi-billioner Elon Musk, owner of X (Formally known as Twitter). In 2021 he said of the human race: "We don't want to be one of those single planet species, we want to be a multi-planet species!" Earlier this year, Mister Musk owned that: "Population collapse due to low birth rates is a myth. Bigger risk to civilization than global warming... Mark my words." Mister Bezos conceives of people living in giant space stations. He said most inhabitants of these would visit Earth for vacations. He envisions our planet returning to its pristine environment, as factories would be built in space. He said they would exploit resources on the moon or on asteroids instead of using Earth's.

task 9

"A Misadventure turned Adventure

Jamie was out with his family. It was early afternoon and they came to the market to pick up some groceries and other boring adult things like they did every Saturday.

Jamie got distracted for a mere moment to longingly stare at the sweets' shop, but when he turned back, his family was nowhere to be seen. The boy faltered and looked around again, but to no avail. "I wasn't up in the clouds for that long"; he mumbled before brightening. Being alone meant he could do anything!

He grinned and confidently lunged into the sea of people, ready to tackle any trouble coming his way.

Jamie started by helping an old lady carry her bags to the bus station like the big and strong boy he is. Then he watched a cat try to steal a fish under a fisherman's nose but fail and get shushed. Nonetheless, the fish owner smiled and tossed the desired treat toward the feline.

Just as the boy was ready to proclaim today the best day ever, he felt a hand on his shoulder. Turning around, he saw his father and was suddenly reminded why he was at the ~~market~~ market in the first place. Still, it didn't dampen his mood. Who could imagine chores could be this fun?
