Task. 9

One morning I got up, brushed my teeth, put on my clothes as usual. All my days were almost the same, so I already knew what would happen next. I went out and looked around, but ... it seemed like something was missing. After a minute I realised: my car was missing! I was scared.

I ^{was} ~~was~~ running as fast as I could to the next street, when I saw my car, driven by someone else! I immediately caught a taxi and asked the driver to follow my car. We had been following him for an hour, when it finally stopped and guess where? Next to my house! I almost got relaxed, but then he entered my house! Although it was dangerous my driver and I followed that man. When I entered my longing, it was dark and when I turned the light on I saw all my friends standing with presents there. It was my birthday that I ^{had} absolutely forgotten about. That usual day turned into a real adventure for me.
