Task 7.

In my opinion, the main disadvantage of living in a big city is a very big population. There are always queues in shops, traffic jams on the roads. Some people feel anxious when they are surrounded with big crowds and it's very hard for them to adapt for it. Another problem caused by overpopulating is that big cities are very noisy, especially at nights. Finally, big cities are often have problems with environment. They are very polluted and plants and animals are forced to live in bad conditions.

Task 8.

I'm going to analyze the diagram about daily activities for teenagers.

73 percent of teens are on social ^{networks} ~~networks~~ now. I suppose, the reason is many teens like tell about themselves on social media and study there. Meanwhile, they can take part in some activities there.

~~37 percent~~

37 percent of teens have online friendship. In the 21st century some teens have online friendship. You can write to every person and become very important for them.

Twitter is unpopular now, so 8 percent of American teens use it.

Facebook became popular in our days, so 22 percent of teens log on to it over 20 times per day. Because a lot of children on social networks 25 percent of Facebook users are under the age of ten.

The average teen has 202 Facebook friends. In my opinion, teens have many friends from different places on the Earth and it's easy.
