Task 3.

There has been a spate of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to steal - luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London, Washington DC and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at knife point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,200 each. As well as literally stealing the coats of peoples' backs, thieves are breaking into peoples' vehicles. Professor David Willson, a criminologist at Birmingham City University, warned that the muggings were the start of a new "luxury crime trend". He said the thefts were "worrying".

Professor Willson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada Goose^{goose}-branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for opportunists who might try to steal them". He added that: "Thieves used to target Rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and then sell them online." A London transport spokesperson said: "Canada Goose coats are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network". She added that this "acquisitive crime" was "very concerning, intimidating and frightening".

Bai Yi was a geologist. Having finished an unassuming university, he couldn't find a job.

"People say that geologists are good for nothing, that they meddle with rocks all day. Foolish! Geology is of immense importance for the world! There was an earthquake in Sichuan yesterday, so I am going there and finding the most precious minerals, or I am not a genius!" thought Bai Yi and patted himself on the shoulder contentedly.

The following day, Bai Yi set off to Sichuan. "What's going on?" Bai Yi shouted, having arrived at the earthquake-damaged mountain. "Wow, another geologist," said someone from the crowd that Bai Yi saw, "be free to work here. But there's nothing left".

Bai Yi left on the verge of tears. Feeling miserable, he boarded the wrong bus and only realised it when he was left on a deserted bus stop.

Near the bus stop, there were two large boulders "I might as well work with them", thought Bai Yi who was already numb to the deeds of fate. Under Bai Zi's instruments, one of the boulders ~~for~~ fell apart, ~~so~~ showing a ~~sparkling~~ geode full of sparkling ~~amethyst~~ amethyst. Bai Zi, indeed, was a genius geologist.
