Task 9 A sarcastic anecdote poem:

We're all humans. We all have that day.

The day that everything went wrong
 When we felt like a drowning duck
 In a swimming lake.

It's totally okay. We all have that day.

And let me tell you

How to find beauty in that specific day

Yep, I overslept and missed my train

I missed my classes,

So, I panicked, cried

And it also rained

My mood was dropping too

It dropped below it usually goes through

I tried to catch a bus that time

But was unlikely to succeed

That's why I walked for thirty minutes to catch a tram

To the place I had to be in

But that tram just took me to the place

I went those thirty minutes from

It's funny tho
How late I was
How make up ran away from me
I just was in that specific day
And cried and laughed
Well, and I guess that's why
Shoe laces got me wrong.
I stepped on it and broke my thumb
But it was funny tho
To live in that specific situation
Being able to react to those challenges I got
Is the greatest time
I've ever had.

In.

That.

Specific.

Day.
