Task 4)

In verdant, an age-old forest, there resided Luna, rabbitting unlike any other. Mesmerized by ^{the} night sky, she spend evenings gaze at stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity been insatiable, differed great from her peers, who prefer a forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on unexpected journey. Guiding by constellations, she ventured beyond the known paths. She leaped over the streams and navigated through ^{the} dense underbrush, her heart pounded with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as a dawn first light creeping over horizon.

There, Luna beheld sunrise of the unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colors that stirred her soul. This moment of awe brought ^{on} profound realization: ~~if~~ the stars been mesmerized, but her own world was equally splendid. Luna's story, blended of a celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became enduring legend, inspired all to ~~to~~ ^{the} appreciate magic of both the distant dreams and beauty close at hand.

Task 5.

Task 8.

1) New York. - It's one of the most expensive cities around the world. It is a really attractive place for every tourist. There are a lot of different sights as ~~see~~ the Central Park, ~~the~~ hotel from "Home Alone", the Time Square and others. In any corner you can spot a celebrity. But also it is a home for a huge number of refugees and homeless people. You always should be in hurry there ~~and~~. Also it is popular by a huge rats in its underground.

2) Washington. - A capital of the USA. It is much ~~more~~ cleaner than NY, so it is more pleasant to visit it rather than NY. There is a beautiful bridge over a lake, where I took a lot of photos.

By the way, there is an enormous library just nearby the White House. Also, there I've spotted Drake and Bruno Mars in Four Seasons hotel.

~~Another~~

3) Pennsylvania - Pennsylvania is a disgusting state. I was there in the year of 2022, in June, I've visited a teacher from Penn. uni, and she told me that this state was the most dangerous state for students even though it has an IVF uni. There are a lot of drugdealers and refugees, who always try to talk and touch you in Texas. Texas is one of the states, that I haven't visited. But according to my friend's words it's gorgeous. She said that it's always warm (not sweltering) there, it's really safe and calm, so they always leave their houses open. Also it is full of cultural sights and the nature there is just magnificent!

5) New Jersey. I spent there all summers when I was a little kid, so I can call it my second home, actually. It is green (full of trees and flowers), people there are kind and gentle, It is safer than NY. There is an access to water, so sometimes we went sunbathing and swimming. It just took 10 minutes to ~~the~~ go to NY.

Task 8.

~~This~~ This story is about my NYE holiday with my family. For sure, 'cause all funny things happen when a group of 16! people gather together, like, all relatives from all sides. It was sunny winter morning on the 31st of December. There was a huge mess, everyone was in hurry, cooking and preparing for the holiday. So clocks beat 6 p.m, time for the great dinner. All of us sat around a huge table and started eating. Then my grandma recalled about feeding our puppy. She went to check him but she ~~hasn't~~ didn't find him. Everyone started to screaming and finding him. But it was just beating the air. So every thing goes wrong, he more dull and aggressive. We went to ~~the~~ outside and spotted a yellow snow. So, we realised that he ran away. So what should we do? Call the police? Or just throw the towel in? My lil brother started shouting out our puppy's name and speak of the Devil! We heard his bark out of our neighbour's house. So me and my grandpa went to that house to pick our lonely back. But how amazed we were when we saw ~~my~~ our neighbour, who was on the last straw to ~~be~~ shout at our puppy cause all of his house was in a huge mess. He explained us that our puppy chased his cat so he wanted to return our puppy to us but this little doggy just ran away. We were so grateful to him, so we decided to invite him and his cat to our house and to celebrate

New Year together. We are so glad that everything went alright.
