(13) There has been a spike of magazine in cities across the globe as ^{"muggers"} ~~as muggers~~ are focusing on a new item to steal - luxury coats.

Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose branded jackets to be careful and be aware of the surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for ^{opportunities} ~~opportunities~~ ^{to try} ~~to try~~ to steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and then sell them online." A London transport spokesman said: "Canada goose ^{coats} ~~coats~~ are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network." He added that this "acquisitive crime was very concerning, intimidating and frightening."

(19) The Day Everything Went Wrong (But Ended Right)

It was an abrupt start for a mundane office worker David, who was jamming papers in the case. The poor man was late for work since his alarm clock hadn't gone off and now he was missing a commute.

As he finally caught a car, his ears were ^{the driver's} flooded with unnecessary stories. While they drove this small talk was driving David crazy. ~~And~~ ^{Not} only the driver was overtalkative, but he also charged our commutes for listening.

Right after getting at work our hero was spotted by his colleague and then scolded for late work day start, noting the ^{possibility} ~~approximation~~ of David's life, life of a man who made do 3 hours of sleep for ten years. Having heard the fuss a manager came in.

"Can I talk with you, David? Privately."

David was furiously sweating by that moment. The two gone away, as the manager was patting David's shoulder.

"Our company's new motto you came up with is awesome!"

"What motto?"

"The one you sent me that night."

And then David recalled, his face on the keyboard that night frightened the man made a frustrated mark, but the manager continued:

"Haven't seen most of you for ages, I'm glad you ~~embrace~~ embrace your creativity after so years of labour. You know, you might even for the rest you deserve. Will a week do?"

After that David relaxed in the countryside as in his absence the billboards shined with his motto."
