Task 7%

Personally, I believe that living in big cities has many disadvantages, despite the fact that many people find it convenient. Firstly, the prices of renting an accommodation are extremely high. As a result, there are many homeless people on the streets. Secondly, because of rising population in big cities there are crowds everywhere. Therefore, you have to wait all the time. Finally, there are many environmental issues such as pollution and deforestation that can lead to serious health problems.

Task 8:

Nowadays teenagers are spending more and more of ~~the~~ their free time online. They communicate there, read books, make friends and even ~~read~~ ~~books~~ watch films online. Therefore, many teenagers can't imagine their lives without modern devices.

Analyzing the presented diagram, we see that the 73% of teens questioned are on social networks. Moreover, 37% of teenagers send messages to their friends daily. In addition, 8% of American teens use Twitter. It's not a secret that Facebook is extremely popular these days and the presented diagram proves it. Almost 22% of teenagers log on to Facebook over 10 times per day. Furthermore, 25% of Facebook users are under the age of 18. Facebook is a great platform to make friends, according to the diagram the average teen has 201 Facebook friends.

To sum up, it is ~~so~~ easy to make a conclusion from the presented data that teenagers' biggest tool is social networks.
