Task 3.

Just when demographers are ringing alarm bells ^{about} over population, town's amazing founder Jeff Bezos says: "We need to populate our Solar System. Mister Bezos was asked for his thoughts on humanity living in outer space in a thousand years time. He replied, "I would love to see, you know, a trillion humans living in the Solar System. If we had a trillion humans, we would have at any given time 1000 Mozarts and 1000 Einsteins. Space would be full of life and intelligence and energy." He added that he wants to help build heavy infrastructure that will be used by the space entrepreneurs of future generations. So that insensate imagination can really be uplift.

Mister Bezos thoughts are asked by fellow multi-billionaire. Elon Musk, owner of X (formerly known as Twitter). In 2012, he said of the human race: "We would ~~not~~ don't want to be one of those single-planet species, we want to be a multi-planet species." Earlier

Mister Musk wondered: "Population collapse due to low birth rates is a much bigger risk to civilization than global warming. Mark these words." Mister Bezos ~~can~~ conceives of people living in giant space stations. He said most inhabitants of this would visit Earth for ~~weekends~~ ~~the~~ vacations. He in weekends our planet returning to its pristine environment, as factories would be built in space. He said they would exploit resources on the moon or on asteroids instead of using up Earth's.

Task 9

A Misadventure Turned Adventure

Once upon a time in one small town, in one street a woman gave birth to twins, they looked so much like each other, that even their own parents could not tell them apart. On a nice summer day father of the boys^{had} found out that one of his sons is a mathematical genius, and the other^{one} is sadly not. Twins used every possibility to prank their parents, neighbours, friends, and they decided not to prank old people, because, usually, it didn't end well. Now, that after they found out that Porter - the one of the twins - is a genius, they agreed on helping each other through hard school days. Peter was pretty good at sports, so he pretended to be Porter on PE lessons, and Porter helped him on maths exams.

Once, Peter Porter performed so well at a PE lesson, while pretending to be Peter, that teacher decided to send him to olympian sports camp. And as you may have already guessed, "Porter" is now going to math. Porter agreed to go, only if

Peter will pass his math exam. They got so used to exchanging personalities that ^{at} once, when Peter was sitting on a date, he ~~forget~~ remembered that he should be packing up for sports camp! So he asked his brother to switch up. Again. They were switching personalities, passports, exams so many times that they forgot who is who. They were confused for the rest of their lives. The end
 But they became an Olympic and mathematical champions.
