Task 9 A Misadventure Turned Adventure.

It was a lovely summer day when Mr. Brown was going to apply ~~for~~ a new job. His clothes were perfect and nothing could stop him from getting the job of the accountant in the big company. He thought so.

When Mr. Brown came to the bus stop, he realised that he was too late. The vehicle had already gone and only one woman stayed near ~~the~~ the stop.

— Too late too? — She asked.

Mr. Brown remembered that next bus would come one hour and a half later, so he would faster reach the destination on his own feet.

Fortunately that woman needed to go in the same direction, so they decided to walk together. She said that one man was probably waiting for her at work: "Greg or something like that". Mr. Brown told her his own story.

No taxi had stopped, usual car drivers had not either. It took them one hour to reach the office of the company and, for the Mr. Brown's surprise, that woman, his companion, also went there. At that moment they realised that he ~~was~~ was too late for the interview with her. Of course, after this long walk Mr. Brown got his job.
