First of all, living in the countryside means facing a lot of scary creatures such as spiders, insects and mice. My friend can't stand them. Moreover, these creatures can easily bite and harm you. Secondly, there is no Internet in the countryside. It is necessary for some people. They feel that time goes extremely long as there is nothing to do. Thirdly, lack of social communication makes some people feel lonely. You can only talk to your neighbours.

Task 8.

Today I would like to give a talk about daily activities for teenagers.

The diagram shows us a result of surveys among teenagers. According to the diagram, the most popular activity is sleeping, about 30 per cent at full amount. This choice can be explained by teenager's daily routine. A lot of teenagers go to work every day apart from school. They often feel exhausted so sleeping is necessary for organism to fully recover.

The second place belongs to eating and studying (about 15 per cent). These activities are common as they go to school and communicate with other teenagers. After school a lot of teenagers like spending time with their friends ~~x~~ in café. That makes eating one of the most popular activities.

Other activities, such as videogames, sports, phone and spending time online, are not so popular.

To sum up, teenagers prefer passive activities.
