The thing is: she was dating a guy who was a musician but her parents ~~thought~~ thought that this profession is not serious. That is why Nelly was hiding her boyfriend's hobby, instead she told them that he was a chemist. Elia had to help her out to visit the chemistry students' campus to make up a story for her parents. As previously mentioned, Elia was late for everything that day. When she, rushing,

~~was~~ got to the campus, Nelly looked at her in a judgemental way. Mira was wearing her mother's ~~old~~ ^{old} coat because she ~~had~~ put hers in the washing machine previously. She didn't have time to do her make up and brush her hair. She looked kind of funny. When they were done with chemistry campus, Nelly eventually saw a guy elia had been admiring for several years. However, elia refused to come up to him as she looked like an old villain from a tale. But Nelly was serious about getting these two together. She threw a snow ball at the guy's back and ran away. Elia now was facing Nick, the boy of her dreams, but she wished she wasn't. She then tripped and fell, but Nick was quick to catch her. Elia thought to herself that luck suddenly came by her side. Nick fell in love with Elia's eyes right away and said: "Hi, you look gorgeous!"
