There are two types of people. The first one are choosing the life in countryside. And the other part enjoys living in big cities.

I'm sure, I won't prefer living in countryside. There are some reasons. For example, in our days nobody can imagine his day without mobile phones and the opportunity of using Wi-Fi. Countryside can't allow it. Another reason is bad industry. In my eyes, it is very necessary for people who want to have a good profession.

The presented diagram shows us the daily activities for teenagers. Analyzing it, I should say that the thirty percent of it is sleeping. This activity is the most popular among teenagers.

Studying and eating are the second popular activities. They include fifteen percent. Other four activities such as sports, phone, online and videogames are only ten percent.

According to statistic, we understand that sleeping is the most popular activity among modern teenagers. In my eyes, most of teenagers are not lazy, they are just very tired of their school and home routines.

I also was surprised to see sports activity has only ten per cent like online activities. My point is that sport is the best free-time activity. Because this hobby gives you the best opportunity to spend your free time with pleasure. Videogames are also interesting activity. But it can be bad for your health. For example you can have health problems such as bad vision.

That's all I wanted to say
