In a verdant, age-old forest, there resided Luna, a rabbit unlike any other. Mesmerized by the night sky, she spent evenings spending gazing at stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, different greatly from her peers, who preferred forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on an unexpected journey. Guided by constellations, she was venturing beyond unknown paths. She leaped over streams and navigated through a dense underbrush, her heart was pounded with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as the dawn first light crept over the horizon.

There, Luna beheld a sunrise of ~~an~~ unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colours that was stirring her soul. This moment of awe ~~bringing profounded the~~ brought a profound realization: stars were mesmerizing, but her ^{own} world was equally splendid. Luna's story, blended of celestial wonder and the earthly beauty, became an enduring legend, inspired all to appreciate the magic of both distant dreams and the beauty closed at a hand.

Task 9.

"The Day Everything Went Wrong (But Ended Right)"

It was on Sunday morning. I got up earlier as just in several hours I would have to take part in the final match of the basketball school tournament. Having ^{done} ~~made~~ my morning routine things, I set off to the bus stop. So, everything seemed to be a success.

After arriving at the bus stop ~~and~~ ^I hanged around there about 20 minutes ~~seeing~~ noticing no buses. Out of the blue, I realised that they didn't ~~go~~ on weekdays. So, I made up ~~my~~ mind and ran to school as fast as cheetah. ~~The~~ However, there were nobody in the school. Moreover, it was closed. I was easy-minded to think that everything ended up without me. Having a long face, I made for home.

On my returning my trainer called me to ^{warn} ~~remind~~ me about the following-day match. In several minutes I got that it was not Sunday, but Monday when it was to be held. Finally, I understood that I had mistaken the days and dates. Nevertheless, I ~~still~~ had enough ^{time} to prepare for my basketball tournament. It was the day ^{when} everything went wrong, though it ended right.

Task 3.

There has been a spate of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to still ~~the~~ luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London, Washington DC and metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at naive point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,200 each as well as literally stealing the coats of people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Willson a criminologist at Birmingham City University ~~was~~ that the muggings were the start of a new ~~new~~ "luxury crimetrend". He said the thefts were "warning" ^{those}.

Professor Willson warned ~~do~~ with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for ^{those} who may try to steal them". He added that: "Thieves used to target Rolex watches which go for thousands of pound and then sell them online." A London transport person said: "Canada goose coats are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people ~~on~~ on the network." She added that this "acquisitive crime" was very concerning, intimidating and frightening.
