TASK 4: "Living in the countryside or in the city?"

This topic always makes people ^{argue} ~~argue~~. I believe that she could give many arguments, for example, the lack of shops, markets, malls; the lack of communication with people; the lack of entertainment, constant feeling of being bored; the need of helping your family with some household chores; bad internet connection. I know much about ~~that~~^{this} topic because I often stay at my grandparents' country-house.

TASK 8: Let's study a pie chart: I could see that one of the biggest part is 'Sleeping'. And I definitely agree, sleep is an important part of growing-up. It helps to gain strenght and to relax. The next part is called 'Studying/ Homework'. It's not as big as 'Sleeping' but anyways bigger than such important activities as 'Eating' and 'Sports'! That's completely not right. Studying so much, teens eat and care about themselves less. The 'Eating' part is only 15%. Good lunch or snack can surely help when you're exhausted. Others are such small activities as gaming, texting, being online and doing sports. I'm glad that using gadgets isn't the biggest

One, however, Sports' one is too small for me.

In teen's lives I would change the amount of sports they're doing and the amount of time they spend at school and doing homework. I'm truly concerned ^{about} ~~for~~ teenagers, their generation.
