Task 7.

Nowadays a lot of people don't enjoy living in the countryside for a variety of reasons. To begin with, there might be no facilities to provide locals with such basic resources as clean water or electricity. Likewise, almost every institution or convenience store may be too far away from the countryside, which makes people get there by means of the local transport. ~~Lastly~~ Moreover, life in the countryside can get quite boring, especially for the younger generation.

Task 8.

The presented pie chart illustrates a ratio of different activities that modern teenagers do on a daily basis. Among these activities there are such crucial ones as sleeping and eating, which take up almost one half of the diagram combined. In addition, online activities take up a little less than a third of the chart, while self-developing ones are only a quarter of an average teenager's day.

The obvious concerning thing would be the fact ~~that~~ teens spend as much time sleeping as staying online, which is ~~of~~ approximately seven ~~hours~~ hours daily. Today young adults really need to be ~~advised~~ reminded of the importance of sleep.

On the other hand, teenagers have to ~~spend~~ spend a lot more quality time playing games and studying. ~~instead of being on their phones constantly~~. In my opinion, this would be the best ~~solution~~ way of ~~staying physically and mentally healthy~~ for teens to stay ~~both physically and mentally~~ healthy.

In conclusion, ~~I'd I would like to say that~~ modern teenagers should spend more time relaxing or learning new things in ~~an~~ order to stay strong and succeed in the future.
