Task 9.

It was just a casual sunny day in May. I got up at 7 a.m. made my bed and went downstairs to eat my breakfast. ~~My~~ Mom was out of town so she left me some toast ~~on~~ the table and a note to it. I was super excited to be alone at home and decided to make a cup of coffee at first. I opened a fridge to find milk but it turned out that we ran out of it! I had to drink that awful "espresso". Eww... That was really gross!

~~Then~~ I went to the bathroom to have a wonderful morning shower. I was ready to start the "skincare routine" but there was no water. At all! I screamed angrily: "Well, I guess everything is going to be bad today!"

I was supposed to go to a concert the next day so I went to pick some clothes from our wardrobe. I chose my favourite dress but it needed ironing. Guess what happened next? I burned it! It was the turning point for me. I burst into tears and became really sad. Ten minutes later mom entered the house with a huge bag. "I thought you would love to have new dresses" - she said. I smiled happily. Well, that day ended right!
