Task 9

"The day everything went wrong (but ended right)"

It was a pretty sunny day. I had to take my last exam. Honestly, I was cramming for it all the previous night and tried to learn everything. Well, my dad said that he couldn't drive me to the university as he needed to fix his car. The situation was really bad: the university was located far from my home. So, I grabbed my passport and student's document and ran to the bus stop station. I was waiting an hour and ~~was~~ getting nervous. When ~~the~~ a bus came, I went into it and took my favourite place near a driver. I was listening music and reading a book. Finally, the bus stopped near my university. I came into and saw a calendar, which was located on the door. I was shocked when I realised that my exam was moved to the next day! I spent so much time to get there, but haste makes waste! I was upset and called my best friend. We were talking for an hour and she suggested to go to the seaside after our exam. Of course, I accepted her offer.

On the next day I passed my exam with flying colors! My family was really happy because I get a Big Bonus. When I met my friend, we ordered a pizza and took it ~~with~~ to our picnic on the beach. It was the best day of my life!
