In^{an} verdant, age-old forest, there resided Luna, a rabbit unlike any other.

Mesmerized by the night sky, she spent evenings gazing at the stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, differing greatly from her peers, who preferred the forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on an unexpected journey. Guided by the constellations, she ventured beyond known paths. She leaped over streams and navigated through dense underbrush, her heart pounded with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as the dawn's first light was creeping over the horizon.

There, Luna beheld the sunrise of an unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colors that stirred her soul. This moment of awe brought a profound realization: the stars are mesmerizing, but her own world is equally splendid. Luna's story, a blending of celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became an enduring legend, inspiring all to appreciate the magic of both distant dreams and beauty close at hand.

In recent weeks, people in London, Washington DC and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at night point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was left across his face as thieves made off with his jacket.

Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,200 each. As well as literally stealing the coats of people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham City University warned that the muggings were the state of a new "crime luxury crime trend". He said the thefts were "worrying".

Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose branded jackets to be careful and beware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for opportunists who may try to steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target Rolex watches with gold for thousands of pounds and then sell them online." A London transport spokesperson said: "Canada goose coats are targeted for robbery. It is a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network," she added that this "acquisitive crime" was very concerning, intimidating, frightening.
