There were many storie in my life when everything went wrong but ended right. One of those was a story that happened to me during my Volounteer trip to France. Everithig began with my desire to practice my English skills. I did not know many opportunities to do so in Moscow but my mom suggested me to participate in volunteer ~~project~~ project in France. I had to pay only for tickets so it seemed ~~like~~ to be a great option for me. I flew to France alone and ~~did~~ I had no idea how I would deal with everything by myself and in another language. Somehow I had only a few ~~problems~~ issues in the airport and my next task was to find a right train station and a platform. And here is where all problems began. I ~~did~~ did not have much time and there were nobody who could help me to find a right place. That is why I accidentally skipped my train and had to wait for another one.

After two or three hours my train appeared and I eventually got into the right place.
