Task 8

Alaska is a cold state. It was sold to USA by Russia for few millions of dollars. It's cost was heavily argued over, But in few years Americans found gold in there so they don't regret buying Alaska.

California is one of the southern states. It's famous for Hollywood, Orange county, Los-Angeles. A lot of celebrities live there, ~~and~~ There are a lot of beaches and beach houses.

Hawaii is kind of a separate island, Americans go there for holidays. It's quite exotic place. It's very beautiful there, I guess.

Florida is famous for surfing and Miami. It's famous for "going out" culture. This state is very expensive to live, though it has less homeless people than California.

Massachusetts is nearby New York. It's small, compared to California or Florida. The main tourist attraction there is MIT, which is considered one of the best universities in the USA and very hard to get in.
