Task 1.

1. The poem should be written for young adult readers who like novels.
2. The poet wants to offer their dreams, but they end up offering clothes.
3. "golden and silver light" and "the half-light" mean different linings and decorations on the clothes.
4. "You tread on my dreams" means that the object of poet's love captures his attention and that should tread lightly, i.e. be careful.

Task 2.

1. (C) modern
2. (B) multiple colors
3. trust and very traditional
4. excitement and danger
5. creativity and death
6. diversity
7. (C) Because it shows they are modern and forward-thinking

Task 3. There has been a spate of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to steal - luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London, Washington D.C. and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at knife point. One man in Birmingham in the U.K. was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,100 each as well as literally stealing the coats off people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham City University, warned that the muggings were the start of a new "luxury crime trend". He said the thefts were "worrying". Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada goose branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for opportunists who might try to steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target Rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and then sell them online." A London transport spokesperson said: "Canada goose coats are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern for us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network." She added that this "acquisitive crime" was "very concerning, intimidating and frightening".

Task 4. In a verdant, age-old forest, there resided Luna, a rabbit unlike ~~anyone~~ ~~else~~ ~~either~~. Mesmerized by the night sky, she spent evenings gazing at stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, differing greatly from her peers, who preferred forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on an unexpected journey. Guided by constellations, she ventured beyond the unknown paths. She leapt over streams and navigated through the dense underbrush, her heart pounded with excitement. Her adventures took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as the dawn's first light was creeping over the horizon.

There, Lunar^{was} beheld^{by} the sunrise of unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colors that stirred her soul. This moment of awe brought a profound realization: stars were mesmerizing, but her own world was equally splendid. Lunar's story, a blend of celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became an enduring legend, inspiring everyone to appreciate the magic of both distant dreams and beauty close at hand.

Task 8. 1) New York is extremely rich in history. The territory upstate has gorgeous forests and is famous for large, aristocratic, ~~writers~~ mansions and the elite that used to live there. The state's most renowned New York City is everything from the political debates of the 18th century with Alexander Hamilton's policies to the modern skyscraper architecture and criminal boroughs like the Bronx.

2) Pennsylvania is regarded as one of the most liberal states in the U.S. It was founded by Quakers - religious puritans who thought that all people, including people of color, are equal. The architecture is very stylish and modern, with Philadelphia's streets, for example, having a grid layout.

3) Virginia is celebrated for its large plantation fields, its justice system and the people it brought to the world. Jamestown, founded in 1603 and named after the king of England and Scotland James I and VI, is one of the first European settlements on the continent. George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and James Madison were all born there in Virginia.

- 4) Texas is famous for its sometimes strict and sometimes amusing laws, e.g. the law that prohibits carrying ice cream in the pocket so as to not attract horses. It used to be an independent republic till it agreed to join the U.S.A. in 1845.

John Kennedy was shot in Dallas in 1963. Houston is famous for its space station from which all N.A.S.A. projects, such as "Apollo" programs, were or are being launched.

- 5) Nevada is renowned for its extremely oppressive weather, miles of deserts, and, of course, its prominent cities such as Las Vegas, which is, undoubtedly, one of the biggest centers of casinos and gambling in the world.

Task 9. The Day Everything Went Wrong (But Ended Right)
 It all started in the morning. Jeremy slept in. He didn't remember the time he went to bed, only the memories of late night partying. Having had an argument with all members of the family, he spilled milk on his uniform while hurrying to get to school.

On arriving to the school, he remembered that he forgot his homework assignments for history and physics. Moreover, he didn't have enough time to prepare for the test they were to write at the algebra lesson. "My God!" exclaimed he.

However, to his astonishment, the lessons hadn't started when he arrived. What is even more peculiar is that there were Spanish classes instead. The whole day went wrong. The lessons were different and Jeremy thought he would be kicked out for not doing any of the assignments he forgot to bring. And the lessons ended much later than he thought.

But I wanted to go for a walk with my friends!" thought Jeremy, and after school he went home with the most dispendent countenance one can come up with.

At home Jeremy told his parents, "My day is ruined. I forgot everything." In response he heard quiet laughing and giggling. His dad showed him the calendar. It was Wednesday, not Thursday...
