Task 3

There has been a spate of muggings in cities across the globe as muggers are focusing on a new item to steal — luxury coats. In recent weeks, people in London, Washington D.C. and other metropolitan areas have been robbed of their coats at knife point. One man in Birmingham in the UK was slashed across his face as thieves made off with his jacket. Criminals are targeting coats that cost as much as $2,200 each. As well as literally stealing the coats off people's backs, thieves are breaking into people's vehicles. Professor David Wilson, a criminologist at Birmingham City University, warned that the muggings were the start of a new "luxury crime trend". He said the thefts were "worrying."

Task 3 (part 2)

Professor Wilson warned those with high-end winter jackets to be careful. He said: "I would tell anyone wearing Canada Goose branded jackets to be careful and be aware of your surroundings and who is around you. You have to be vigilant for opportunists who might try to steal them." He added that: "Thieves used to target Rolex watches which go for thousands of pounds and then sell them online." A London transport spokesperson said: "Canada Goose coats are targeted for robbery. It's a real concern to us because it really impacts the safety of young people on the network." She added that this "acquisitive crime" was "very concerning, intimidating and frightening."

Task 4

In a verdant, age-old forest there lived Luna, a rabbit unlike any other. Mesmerized by the night sky, she spent evenings gazing at the stars, dreaming of cosmic mysteries. Her curiosity was insatiable, differing greatly from her ~~peer~~ peers, who preferred the forest's tranquil life.

One clear night, Luna embarked on an unexpected journey. Guided by constellations, she ventured beyond known paths. She leapt over streams and navigated through dense underbrush, her heart pounding with excitement. Her adventure took her to the tallest hill in the forest, just as the dawn's first light crept over the horizon.

There, Luna beheld a sunrise of unimaginable beauty, a kaleidoscope of colours that stirred her soul. This moment of awe brought a profound realisation: stars were mesmerizing, but her own world was equally splendid. Reina's story, a blend of celestial wonder and earthly beauty, became an enduring legend, inspiring all to appreciate the magic of both distant dreams and beauty close at hand.

However, when the day came, everything went pear-shaped. To begin with, Jonathan called to explain that he'd come down with a bad cold and wouldn't be coming. Then, it turned out that the ginormous cake Anne'd ordered wasn't ready because the baker had confused the dates. The cherry on top was that Anne's best friend was suddenly whisked off to the Alps by her parents, so she wouldn't be coming either.

'That would be funny if it weren't happening to me,' Anne observed to her twin sister Emily. Half an hour later, they had already devised a plan.

Before the guests started arriving, Anne sneaked out of the flat, leaving Emily to pretend to be her and be in charge of everything. She dropped in a ~~drugstore~~ pharmacy and a pizzeria and, loaded with food and drugs, she arrived at Jonathan's home. There they spent a lovely and enjoyable evening together and
