Task 8.

An average teenager spends ~~more~~ 30% of their time sleeping, which is not surprising as they are always snowed under with work, while their bodies are still forming. Eating is as important as sleeping and your health depends on your diet, on which teens spend 15% of time.

Studying is endless and young people spend 15% of time on homework and additional lessons on daily basis. Nowadays sports among youngsters becomes increasingly popular, due to ~~the~~ its positive impact on their immune system, mind health, relaxation after a long busy day, fitness, ~~and~~ even appearance and 10% of time is dedicated to physical activity.

Bad news is that teenagers tend to spend tons of time on texting, surfing the internet, playing videogames, which waste 10% of time each. In total that's 30% of time or 4,2 hours daily - same amount as sleeping!
