Task 8

It is not a secret that average student spends a lot of time using his gadgets like phones, computers, tablet PC and others. But what if we count the amount of time that average teenager spends usual teenagers spends online?

The results will be shocking. Average teenager loses about 8 hours of his life daily while using these gadgets. If we sum up the percentages amount of time young people lose on playing videogames, being online in general and texting messages we'll get the amount of 30% of the day, which is about 7,2 hours daily. This means that teenagers lose about 7,2 hours of self-improvement each day by wasting it on useless activities.

Sadly, according the future may be even worse as technology more and more activities nowadays require us using internet. Doing homework includes And there is nothing we can do about this fact, except one thing - reducing the amount of time we have our phones near in our pockets. This may sound strange but about 60% of phone users have a habit to check their phone for new messages. If you lose this habit, you will see how concentrated and calm you are without your gadget.

It is known by fact, that people nowadays spend too much time using their phones, ^{sometimes even forgetting about everything else} using the presented diagram, we will find out the amount of time which average teenager spends ~~test~~ with the phone in his hand.

In the presented pie chart, we see that teenagers use about 30% of their day gaming, texting and staying on-line. This means that about 7.2 hours of possible self-improvement ^{and educational purposes} are lost each day.

As this ^{of wasted time becomes} problem ~~becomes~~ more popular, ^{nowadays} I suggest a simple solution - put your phone away. Just forget about it for a couple of hours, and you will see how calm and concentrated ^{you have become} ~~you will see how calm and concentrated~~ ^{without a habit of checking your phone every minute}.

In conclusion, I would like to say, that although technologies have great impact on our lives, we can control this impact by our own hands, ~~using simple solutions~~ ^{using simple solutions}.
